

Sixth Grade Tuesday News

August, 22 2017

Week 2

1st Trimester

Welcome 6th Grade Families~

This is first weekly newsletter that will be going out in the Tuesday Folders, via email and posted on the sixth grade website. Keep reading throughout the year for important info about your child's last year at Cobblestone (sniff, sniff...).

Your child is beginning the VERY IMPORTANT elementary/middle school transition year of sixth grade. Please celebrate their departure on this farewell voyage on the S.S. Cobblestone. Without your help, this can become a rocky cruise.

Thank you to those of you that attended the Meet the Teacher last Tuesday. We hope to see everyone at Back to School Night this Thursday from 5:45-6:30 pm. It will be our pleasure to share a lot of important information with you! If you will not be able to attend, please look for the information that we will be sharing on the sixth grade website off the Cobblestone website.

This week's Tuesday Folder contains the first Scholastic Book Order. All orders placed online earn our classrooms free books.

We look forward to all the chills, spills and thrills that await all of us over the course of the upcoming school year.
